

MUSEO D'ARTE DI CHIANCIANO

To whom it may concern

Chianciano Terme 2 May 2013

Dear Sirs,

This is to confirm that Mrs. Johanna Engdahl, resident at Örtvägen 30 -26 AX-22100 Mariehamn, Åland, have been selected by the Museum Committee to participate at the Biennale of Chianciano 2013.

There are some 130 artists, representing countries from all around the world, exhibiting at the Biennale of Chianciano 2013.

The exhibition spreads over 3000 sq.metres of the museum space and has the patronage of the City of Chianciano. The participants are selected by a committee and the exhibition is judged by a distinguished jury.

There are many collateral events during the Biennale week, which range from evening events and lectures to individual interviews with participating artists. It has extensive press coverage and is visited by many international collectors and galleries.

The Museum Selection Committee consider Johanna Engdahl a very talented artist and we look forward to her participation at this prestigious event.

For any further information, please contact me by email info@museodarte.org or by telephone at the Special Events Office in London on +44 20 7352 3663 between 12 and 7pm Monday to Saturday.

Thanking you for your consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Marie Gagliardi
