Your Excellency,

Greetings!

It is a pleasure to invite you as one of our honoured guests to the opening of the 'Art Quake Kyoto 2015' a contemporary exhibition by artists from different parts of the globe that will be hosted at the prestigious Museum of Kyoto, Japan from the 16th – 22nd of March 2015.

Contemporary international artists will be competing in this show. Awards include: Art Quake Prize for Excellence in Painting, Sculpture and Digital Photography. Art Quake Prize for Peace will also be awarded to artists whose lifetime work involves advocacy for Peace through creative expressions. International juries will select the winners based on the submitted works as well as past evidences in terms of published materials or reviews on the artist's achievements or excellence in the arts.

As a curator of the show and part of the organizing committee, I am very proud to acknowledge the participation Ms. Johanna Engdahl, from Finland. She is a recognized artist who had participated in several international art shows in the past and I hope that she will be supported in her creative activities.

I had taken the liberty to attach a copy of the information regarding the event. Should you need further information about the show, please do not hesitate to get in touch with me,
