

MUSEO D'ARTE DI CHIANCIANO

To whom it may concern

1 June 2015

This is to confirm that the artist Johanna Engdahl of Rospiggsvägen 4, 18363 Täby, Sweden has been selected by the Museum Committee to participate in the Biennale of Chianciano 2015. She will also write a book about the owner's Swedish connection with the Museum and about the Scandinavian participants Sinikka Elfving from Finland, Ingvill Solberg, Anne Lise Kaaby and Kjell Folkvord from Norway, Titti Hammarling, and Alexander Lee from Sweden, Preben Jensen, Viveca Möller and Steffen Faisst from Denmark.

The Biennale exhibition is held at the Museum from the 5 – 13 September, 2015. Works by artists such as Durer, Munch, Tiepolo and Magritte will be replaced by the new generation of contemporary artists participating in the Biennale.

There are 110 artists representing countries from all around the world at the Biennale of Chianciano 2015. The exhibition spreads over 3000 sq.meters of museum space and has the patronage of the City of Chianciano.

The participants are selected by a committee and the exhibition is judged by a distinguished international jury.

There are many collateral events during the Biennale week, which range from lectures to concerts. It has extensive press coverage and is visited by many international collectors and galleries and it is vital that the artists are present at the Biennale.

Please see the website for further information.
